

Lord,

I come before you asking for forgiveness and repent of all my sins. I thank you for today, for all blessings, for all that you've given me, including my husband. This prayer is not for me, but for him, Lord.

I pray the armor of God over him, the helmet of salvation, the armor of righteousness, belt of truth, boots of the gospel of faith, that he will take up the sword of the spirit and shield of faith. I pray for protection while he is at work and at home. That you will protect him from every fiery dart of the enemy. That you will lead him from temptation. Let him see sin as you do and detest it.

Lord, please fill him with the Holy spirit and surround him with your angelic warriors. Please break down every stronghold in his life.

Heal him physically, emotionally, and most of all spiritually. Don't let him become jaded like the world, but heal any illness in his body and fill him with your supernatural peace and joy.

I pray you help him keep captive every thought, every action, every word. That those he comes in contact with will see You in him. I pray you give him wisdom to understand your love for Him, understand your will, and to make wise decisions with a hearing and understanding heart. Courage to act in Your name, to act on decisions made, and strength to stand with the consequences of all actions.

Let him surround himself with holy people, with your people. But let him have a soft heart to reach out to those who still need to see you. Let him see others through your eyes.

Let Your will be done in his life. Let him take up his mantle as leader for our family and let him lead us spiritually and financially with wisdom. Let him lead in meekness, respect, strength and most importantly faith. Let him lean on you for guidance and not on himself.

Let all things he touches may it be at work or at home be blessed. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

I love you Father, and I thank you for all things, good or challenge. In Christ name I pray, Amen.
