

Dear God,

I humbly come before you and thank you for every blessing you've given me. I ask you to forgive me of all of my sins and transgressions as I come before you to pray for my child.

As my child goes through their day, I pray for your supernatural protection over them. Let the Holy Spirit fill their heart and lead them throughout their day, letting them know what is right and wrong. Protect them with your angelic warriors, letting no evil come near them.

I pray the armor of God over my child. The helmet of salvation, breastplate of righteousness, the belt of truth, boots of the gospel of peace, that they take up the shield of faith and sword of the spirit. Protect them from every fiery dart of the enemy Lord, letting no ill influences lead them astray.

Lead them from temptation may it be anything at school, peer pressure from friends, bullying, gossip, anything that may tempt them during their day.

Let my child keep captive every thought, action, and word. Let them keep their child-like innocence and not be jaded by the world or confused by the world. Fill them with gratitude and teach them to be meek, courageous, and kind.

Please let them be a good student, friend, and good to their siblings. To be gracious and quick to serve You and others. To respect their peers and elders, but wisdom to know when to stand up for themselves and for others.

Allow good people and friends in their lives, only bringing positive and love into their lives. Fill them with Your wisdom, grace, and love. That you will fill them with joy, even if their day isn't the best. Though, I pray that if it be Your will, You let all their days be wonderful and blessed.

Let them know they can come to You regardless of what happens in their lives, as well as me.

Lead me to be a good example in their life. Give me patience to teach them and lead them the way they need to go.

Let Your will be done in their lives Lord.

I humbly pray this in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen!
