

Lord,

Today I come to you and ask for forgiveness for all sins I have committed. I also release all debts of anyone who has wronged me. I come before you clean and ask of you to guide me today. Help me keep captive every thought, action, and every word. To see the world and people as you see them and to love and forgive them as you do.

I pray the armor of God over myself and my family today to guard us against attacks from the enemies, to protect our joy and faith. We put on the helmet of salvation so that our minds will be protected from the enemy and their strongholds and to be reminded of our salvation in you.

We put on the breastplate of righteousness to protect our hearts from the temptation and the hurts that come from battle.

Next, we put on the belt of truth so that we may see through the lies of the enemy. So that we can focus on your word and be honest people of integrity.

Now, we put on the boots of the gospel of peace so that we are ready to follow you no matter where you take us, so that we can be faithful, and be one with You, O' Lord.

We take up the shield of faith to protect us from the fiery darts of the enemy. Our shield will extinguish all the darts, lies, threats, and temptations the enemy throws our way.

And lastly, we take up the sword of the Spirit. We take up Your word, Your offensive weapon as we go forth in battle, the only weapon that destroys the enemy. Your word is a living word alive and stronger and sharper than any double-edged sword.

Be with us today as we live for You Lord and protect us. Help us keep the faith and joy knowing that You love and forgive us. We thank you for today and every blessing You have given us.

In Christ's name I pray,

Amen.
